

Future of Food: Control the Food, Control the People

“And the cattle, He has created them for you. You have in them warm clothing and (other) advantages, and of them you eat.”—Holy Qur’an 16:5

“And of the cattle (He has created) some for burden and some for slaughter. Eat of that which Allah has given you and follow not the footsteps of the devil. Surely he is your open enemy—”

NEWS ANALYSIS

The World Economic Forum (WEF) is an organization made up of the world’s wealthiest individuals. It famously meets every year in Davos, Switzerland, to plan and promote an agenda to shape the future in its own image and likeness. Led by a man named Klaus Schwab, this group is believed by many to be the driver of the “COVID crisis” and its goal of world depopulation. Henry Kissinger—the former Secretary of State under President Richard Nixon whose infamous 1974 memorandum called for the culling of the world population—is a board member of the WEF. So, why are Klaus Schwab and the WEF attacking the cow and all farm animals?

We can first use basic Earth science to destroy the World Economic Forum’s attack on farm animals to “reduce climate change”; then we will review the history of the WEF and its attack on humanity with the planned “COVID-19 pandemic,” which reveals their real reason for attacking farm animals. There is a basic fallacy in WEF’s argument that farm animals cause “climate change” by increasing, through digestive gases, the amount of methane and CO2 in the atmosphere, which they claim, increases global warming. That is nonsense.

Farm animals are part of a beautiful God-created “virtuous eco-cycle” called the Carbon Cycle. Simply put, the Carbon Cycle is the circulation of carbon in various forms through nature. Carbon is essential to life and is found in the air or dissolved in water as carbon dioxide (CO2).

Green plants capture and absorb carbon dioxide from the soil and air and then release some of it into the atmosphere through the process of photosynthesis, converting the CO2 into simple carbohydrates. These carbohydrates are then eaten by humans and animals, whereupon carbon is released by respiration and excretion. In death, humans and animals release carbon as they decay. This cycle of life that God designed represents a perfect carbon cycle, so there can be no net increase in atmospheric carbon dioxide due to living farm animals.

Further, when plants and animals die, the organic carbon that is in their bodies may accumulate in the Earth’s crust as fossil fuels (e.g., coal, gas, and petroleum), limestone, and coral. The carbon of fossil fuels stored for billions of years is now being released in vast amounts as CO2 all at once like a bomb. That is the only source of increased atmospheric CO2—not animal burps or manure, as these profiteering pseudo-scientists would have us believe. After slavery came the industrial revolution and the advent of machinery with an insatiable demand for oil and gas. Below is a chart to show you just how much CO2 the oil barons have released into the atmosphere in just a few short Earth years.

Future of Food

But the real reason for the global elites' attack on farm animals is to destroy the agricultural industry and replace it with chemically synthesized or laboratory-grown imitations of nature. These new products will use toxic materials like petrochemicals from fossil fuels, which they can control. They dig wells one mile deep and spend millions of dollars to get to one deposit of fossil fuels, whereas common people can buy some land and produce food and renewable energy from that land. In 1925 Henry Ford predicted: "The fuel of the future is going to come from fruit like that sumac out by the road, or from apples, weeds, sawdust—almost anything. There is fuel in every bit of vegetable matter that can be fermented." The first automobiles ran on this kind of ethanol fuel—not gasoline. That came much later.

Further research has shown that cornstalks, not corn seeds, are one of the best sources from which to produce ethanol fuels. An acre of cornstalks left in the field after harvesting corn seed will produce 100 gallons of alcohol. Then the distiller can turn around and sell his waste back to the farmer for cattle food. Nothing has been taken from it but the alcohol—all the nitrogenous matter is still there, to go back to the soil as fertilizer. In 1910, Black farmers owned 16 million acres of land. What if they could grow both food for the emerging Black economy and fuel for the new motor vehicles? What would our world look like? And this is why J.D. Rockefeller and other merchants of death not only blocked farm-grown energy and replaced it with fossil fuels for energy but also synthesized the drugs formerly found in nature from the petrochemicals.

Many of us have never heard of the World Economic Forum or Klaus Schwab until October of 2019, when the WEF, the Johns Hopkins Center for Health Security, and the Bill and Melinda Gates Foundation—"partners" of the WEF—hosted Event 201, which "modeled a fictional coronavirus pandemic." The "high-level simulation exercise" predicted that the "pandemic" would produce a worldwide recession. Beginning in

'Save Lives Now, Stay Home, #COVID-19' highway sign, March 19, 2020. Photo: MGN Online

March 2020 came the lockdowns, which are estimated to have destroyed 40 percent of Black businesses nationwide and 40 percent of the restaurants in New York City alone. The super-rich elites acting on inside information profited from this recession, while many middle- and working-class families lost everything.

Not surprisingly, people like Bill Gates made a lot of money based on his insider information about this preplanned "pandemic" and its so-called vaccines. According to a recent Children's Health Defense article, the Bill and Melinda Gates Foundation bought over a million shares of German biotechnology company BioNTech (with its Pfizer-partnered COVID-19 "vaccine") in September of 2019—just months before the "pandemic" was announced—at just $18.10 per share. Then the foundation sold 86 percent of its holdings for $300 per share, pocketing "a profit of approximately $260 million, or more than 15 times its original investment."

Now Bill Gates and others are coming after the farmers' land. Gates is the largest individual farmland owner in America and his farmland "appears earmarked for genetically engineered (GE) corn and soy crops"—the base foods for his synthetic meat. Bill Gates, "who co-funded the startup of the imitation meat company Impossible Foods, now insists synthetic beef is a necessary strategy to address climate change." One other use for the farmland Gates acquired: growing crops for biofuels. In 2016, he joined a French oil giant in investing $14 million in biofuel specialist Renmatix, which had "developed a process that converts plant waste and biomass into sugars that can be converted into biofuels."

Real farmers have got to be destroyed so that Gates and his fellow plotters can control the people through controlling the food. So, while the WEF is trying to eliminate the cow, we need to heed the words of the Honorable Minister Louis Farrakhan from, "What Is the Value of the Cow?" in Part 38 of his 2013 lecture series The Time and What Must Be Done. The Minister states: "The level of economic activity and technology generated by the cow is staggering! From its milk, hide, blood, brain, intestines, hooves, fat, pancreas, ovaries, bones, and even manure, hundreds of products are produced. So if there is that kind of value in the cow, shouldn't we treat it as a 'gift from God'?"

Pharma Companies Spent More on Lobbying Than Any Other Industry

Secret Pfizer documents show more horrific drug industry crimes

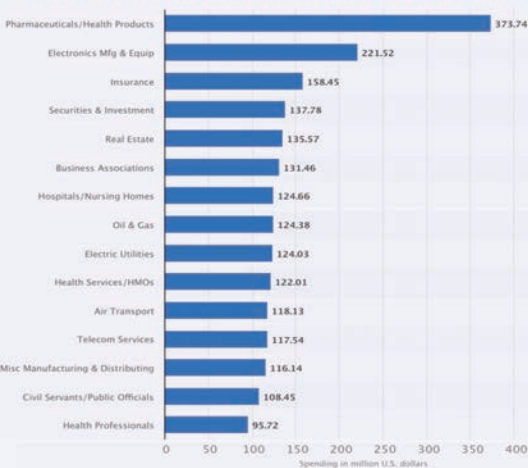

Amish Ignored CDC and Avoided COVID Disaster

A new report revealed that in 2022 the pharmaceutical industry spent $374 million on federal lobbying alone, far more than any other industry.

According to analysts, much of the reason for outsized spending by the pharmaceutical industry was related to the massive push for the government to mandate "vaccines" for all Americans.

The chart below shows lobbyist spending by each industry:

Leading lobbying industries in the United States in 2022, by total lobbying spending (in million U.S. dollars)

DEPOPULATION in HISTORY

From the very start of Europe's colonization of America, the invading settlers were begging their British king to destroy the "savages" at an even faster rate than he already was. The king's slowness to annihilate the Indians was one of the reasons the "founding fathers" wanted to separate from England. Their Declaration of Independence calls them "the merciless Indian Savages," and the early Thanksgiving holidays were little more than celebrations of successful racial massacres.

The Red Holocaust was systematic, calculated, and extremely profitable. Colonial merchants supplied the British, Dutch, French, and American armies to ethnically cleanse the Indian Nations from their ancestral lands.

Once the armies retreated, it was the merchants who surveyed and divided the land into lots and began selling them to the white settlers. The land's "value" was created out of thin air and these property rights were then protected by the U.S. government. Legendary American "frontiersmen" like Daniel Boone and even pre-president George Washington were actually surveyors in the employ of these merchants, measuring out property lines and killing any Indians that remained. In 10 months the force Washington led had fought 20 battles that killed and removed the people who had lived on that land for thousands of years.

President Andrew Jackson's Indian Removal Act of 1830 initiated a series of genocidal wars against the remaining Indian Nations. The policy confined the survivors to about 310 "reservations."

Dr. Naomi Wolf of DailyClout (in photo) has presented new information from the court-ordered release of Pfizer COVID-19 "vaccination" documents showing that nearly 9% of the vaccinated suffered damage to their muscle and skeletal system.

According to Dr. Wolf, "Women were affected at a ratio of almost 4:1 over men, and you'll remember that I've often said that joint pain is the number-one side effect in the Pfizer documents, but the CDC doesn't mention it."

She said that this would explain why so many people are having to get shoulder, hip, or knee replacements, or why their ankles are giving out in young, otherwise healthy people.

"The bottom line is there were...3,640 adverse events of this kind," Dr. Wolf explained. "Of these, 44 percent were classified by Pfizer as serious..."

Reproduction Targeted

Dr. Wolf said: "It's my belief that they were trying to disrupt especially female reproduction....In the Pfizer documents, there's a chart," detailed Dr. Wolf. "And as a woman, this is one of the most painful things to see. And I'm Jewish. And my grandmother lost nine brothers and sisters to the Holocaust. So I don't say this lightly, but this chart is a Mengele-type of chart. It's Mengele science." [Dr. Josef Mengele was a Nazi doctor who conducted horrific medical experiments on Jewish prisoners.]

"Why is it Mengele science?" she asked. "Because they break down 20 different horrible things that can happen to women's menstruation."

According to a report cited on Mercola.com, new scientific data has revealed that "vaccinated" pregnant women suffer a 27-fold higher risk of miscarriage following COVID-19 shots.

The shot's contents are biodistributed into the bloodstream within hours and cross "all physiologic barriers including the maternal-placental-fetal barrier and the blood brain barriers in both the mother and the fetus," wrote Dr. James Thorp, a maternal-fetal medicine expert. Pregnant women were subjected to the shots, and in many cases were mandated to receive them.

As a result, birth rates in multiple European countries fell significantly at the end of 2021, months after COVID-19 shots became widely mandated. Researchers have called for the immediate suspension of COVID-19 vaccination for all persons of childbearing and reproductive age.

Medical researcher Steve Kirsch asks how the Amish religious group in Pennsylvania fared so much better during the "COVID crisis" than the American population as a whole. The Amish refused the vaccine and yet their infection fatality rate from COVID was 200X lower than the surrounding community. "Their secret? They ignored ALL the CDC's recommendations," wrote Kirsch.

As America ground to a halt and followed the depopulation dictates of Bill Gates and Dr. Anthony Fauci, it had the highest death rate in the world. Kirsch reports, "[T]he Amish didn't do anything to protect against getting COVID: no lockdowns, no vaccinations, no masks, no social distancing, no mandates, no school closures, nothing. If they got sick, they used ivermectin and other methods that were not recommended by the CDC or FDA. 90% of the Amish have been infected by COVID, yet only 5 of the Amish might have died from COVID."

Early on The Honorable Minister Louis Farrakhan noted the success of the Amish methods: "Their whole community got infected: They dealt with it—they didn't go to the hospital, they went right back to the natural system and fed their immune system with not chemicals, food! And they achieved 'herd immunity.' So their whole community, now, is just happy."

Molecular Biologist Dr. Christina Parks interviewed a senior elder in the Amish church. He said, "We heard about it, but didn't feel it. No one went to the hospital." He attributes this to their faith. They stopped church services and did distancing between families for only one week in the beginning—but no masking. Their business establishments put the required sign saying that the State required masks, but most ignored it.

He said that isolating people goes against their principles of Christian brotherhood, so they don't do that. He knew of Amish people who used Ivermectin.

Most in the community "felt the fear and hype is about as bad as the pandemic itself." Their attitude was and is: "If you have healthy food, faith in God, you will probably be fine. Even if we die, we have heaven before us." He says, "I'd rather trust God than trust a vaccine."

“Making a Killing” Film Exposes COVID Incentives to Kill

A new documentary examines the cash incentives paid to hospitals that appeared to have dictated the treatment given to “COVID-19” patients. The U.S. had one of the worst outcomes than any country, despite having the most expensive and extensive health delivery systems on earth. Many believe that the high number of “pandemic” deaths (now 1,131,439) and hospitalizations (now 6,176,446) in America was driven by profit and greed.

The documentary, titled Making A Killing, was produced by Patty Myers (in photo), whose husband died of hospital mistreatment of COVID-19. According to one report, “When the federal government sent $9,000 to her to pay for her husband’s funeral, she got angry. ‘I didn’t want to take a penny.

It felt like hush money, like they were paying me to keep quiet about how my husband died in the hospital.’” Myers decided to take the government’s money and use it to make the documentary. “When I started making this film, I didn’t know about the federal money driving the [hospital] protocol. I do now,” Myers said. The federal money was flooding hospitals with cash and generating record-breaking hospital profits. A new report reveals that the 20 largest nonprofit hospitals in America received more than $23 billion in federal aid during the 2018-2021 time period, and “their cumulative net assets soared from 200 billion in 2018 to $325 billion in 2021.”

As Patty Myers discovered, the federal money incentivized specific medical “treatments” for COVID that happened to be deadly. “If the hospital admitted you with a Covid diagnosis, they got paid more! If they ‘treated’ you with remdesivir, a drug well-documented as lethal, they got a 20% bonus on the whole bill! If the hospital tortured you with mechanical ventilation that caused secondary bacterial pneumonia, they got an even bigger payout! And if the hospital really lucked out and you died ‘with COVID’ (even if not directly of COVID), the cash bonanza was absolutely awesome.”

POISONOUS FOOD and WATER

“Take, for instance, the use of fluoride, chloride, and sodium, which if not used correctly can destroy our entire life. Maybe it is best to find something else that will clear our water without killing both us and the poison in our food and water.

“The scientist should not advocate the use of such poisonous chemicals as fluoride, chloride, and sodium, which may have a bad effect on our brains and our human reproductive organs. The scientist that uses such poison on human beings wants to either minimize the birth rates or cause the extinction of a people.”

The Most Honorable Elijah Muhammad, How To Eat To Live, Book One (1967), p. 107

Researchers Hid Data Showing Fluoride Lowers IQs in Children

The controversial practice of adding fluoride to drinking water first began in the 1940s, advocates claim, to prevent dental cavities. But cavities have decreased in countries both with and without water fluoridation, and troubling medical side-effects are now being discovered. Children’s Health Defense reports that California’s dental director intentionally omitted data linking fluoride exposure to brain damage in children.

The documents obtained by the Fluoride Action Network show that the study’s research team, led by Dr. Jayanth V. Kumar (in photo), a dental surgeon, conducted a review of the scientific literature on fluoride’s effect on brain development and found a link between fluoride exposure and lowered IQ in children, even at low levels of exposure. However, they omitted the data and wrote a paper concluding there was no evidence of a link.

Four rounds of scientific review rejected Kumar’s manuscript as “poorly researched,” “internally inconsistent” and committing “unashamed exaggeration” before the journal Public Health finally published Kumar’s study.

This is highly significant because of a “groundbreaking” U.S. Department of Health and Human Services National Toxicology Program (NTP) report that found 52 of 55 human studies showed lower child IQ with higher fluoride, and concluded that there was “no obvious threshold” at which fluoridating water is safe.

After COVID “Vaccine” Life Expectancy Takes Tragic Fall, Depopulation Rises

Dr. Joseph Mercola points out: “If the COVID jabs worked, you’d expect excess mortality to drop, yet that’s not what we’re seeing.”

Data now shows that Americans lost nearly three years of life expectancy during the “pandemic.”

- In 2019, the average life span of Americans of all ethnicities was 78.8 years;
- By the end of 2020, it had dropped to 77 years;
- By the end of 2021, it was 76.4.

Virginia Commonwealth University professor of population health Dr. Steven Woolf told USA Today: “That means all the medical advances over the past quarter century have been erased.”

While life expectancy dropped across all age groups, the age groups with the highest increases in mortality were working-age adults, 25 through 54, followed by children between the ages of 1 and 4.

Liars & Deceivers to the Very End

Last week CDC director Dr. Rochelle Walensky appeared before a Senate committee and made the following statement: “We still to this day do not have data on people who are coming into the hospitals who are vaccinated. That is a data point that we have lacked.”

Yet, in July 2021 she said: “Unvaccinated Americans count for virtually all recent COVID-19 hospitalizations and deaths.”

How is it that the CDC had that data in 2021 when they needed to publicly shame the “unvaccinated,” but—under oath, and now that the vaccine-injured are filling hospitals—Walensky now says they currently don’t have and NEVER had that information? Everyone who has been to a hospital—even as a visitor—over the last 3 years is aggressively asked if they were “vaccinated.” Yet, somehow, the CDC can’t find that “data point.”
