

Population Reduction and Control are America's Real COVID Agenda

by Dr. Ridgely Abdul Mu'min Muhammad

In a now-viral video, Dr. Anthony Fauci and D.C. Mayor Muriel Bowser go door-to-door in a Black neighborhood in Washington, D.C., promoting the COVID-19 “vaccines,” when a Black D.C. resident blows up their arguments with scientific facts. The unidentified Brother questions the legitimacy of these “vaccines” and correctly compares the deadliness of the COVID-19 virus to the seasonal flu. He ends by accusing Fauci and his ilk of trying to scare people into taking an injection that the Honorable Minister Louis Farrakhan has called “death itself.” “Your campaign is about fear! It’s about inciting fear in people,” the man in the video charges. “You all attack people with fear. That’s what this pandemic is. It’s fear, it’s fear, this pandemic. That’s all it is!”

This video was first put up on Twitter in 2021, but was immediately taken down by censors. However, it is now available after Elon Musk bought Twitter and promised to stop such government tampering with Free Speech. If this video was released in 2021 at the height of the controversy over the vaccines’ “efficacy and safety,” this Brother would have been accused of spreading “misinformation,” promoting “vaccine hesitancy,” and disseminating “unfounded allegations.” However, when this video appeared in March of 2023, it went viral—getting six million views in three days—because the masses now know that Fauci lied about the efficacy and safety of these military-grade mRNA shots produced by Moderna and Pfizer. Now we have proof that this whole so-called pandemic was a fear campaign based on propaganda and lies, not a public health campaign based on genuine science or actual facts.

In Volume 42 No. 28, The Final Call published an article by Jeffrey A. Tucker of the Brownstone Institute titled “The Big Lie: How Fauci Instilled Panic and Set the Stage for Lockdowns,” which documents just how correct our Brother from D.C. was when he claimed that this was nothing but a “fear campaign.” Speaking to Congress on March 11, 2020, Fauci claimed that public health officials knew for sure that at best “COVID-19” was 10 times deadlier than the flu. Fauci testified: “I think the gauge is that this is a really serious problem that we have to take seriously. I mean people always say, well the flu, you know, the flu does this, the flu does that ... The flu has [mortality] of 0.1 percent. This has mortality of 10 times that, and that is the reason why I want to emphasize, we have to stay ahead of the game in preventing this.”

According to the Brownstone Institute article, the actual mortality rate of “COVID-19,” broken down by age group, was:

0-19 years: 0.0003% [just 3 deaths for every 1 million people]

20-29 years: 0.002% [2 in 100,000]

40-49 years: 0.035% [3.5 in 10,000]

50-59 years: 0.123% [1.23 in 1,000] (flu)

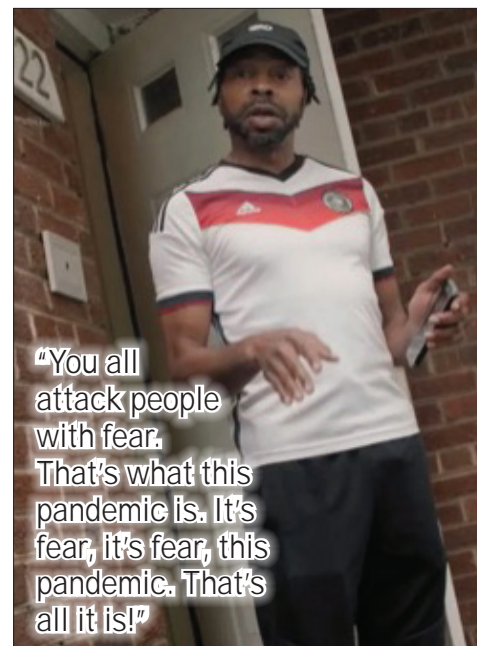

and 60-69 years: 0.506% [5.06 in 1,000] (bad flu).

Fauci must have known the true nature of the “dangers” of this virus on Feb. 28, 2020, when he wrote that “this is more or less the flu, except with a large age gradient.” His change of mind in the course of two weeks prior to this testimony is based on absolutely no evidence.

Population Reduction

What changed was his tactics, but why?

What was Fauci up to? Our Brother from D.C. questioned Fauci's real agenda when he said to Fauci, "When you start talking about paying people to get vaccinated, when you start talking about incentivizing things to get people vaccinated—it's something going on with that."

We have had three years now to evaluate the agenda of Fauci and the U.S. government. America pushed these gene-altering shots on her population while China, which was supposedly the source for this virus, did not use this mRNA gene technology, instead producing billions of doses of their locally made vaccines based on older vaccine development practices. The result has been that in the United States, as of April 5, 2023, supposedly 1,127,104 people died of COVID, while only one-tenth of that number (101,056) died of COVID in China. And since over 35,000 Americans have died from the COVID-19 "vaccines," why is America still pushing these shots?

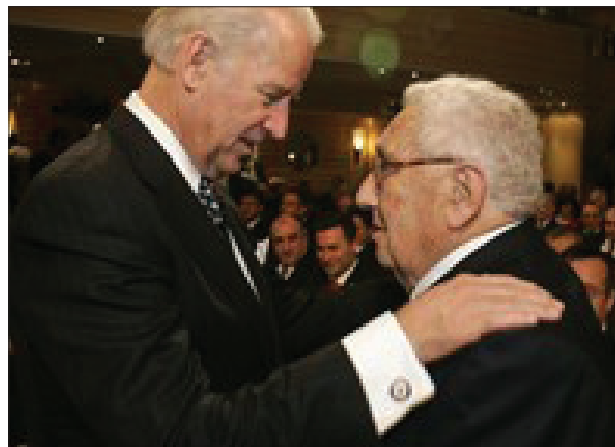

Edward Dowd

Edward Dowd, a former analyst at the giant Black-Rock Corp., pointed out that since the release of these COVID shots insurance companies are reporting that death rates have increased by 40% for working-class Americans (ages 18-64). Dowd attributes this increase to companies and government agencies mandating vaccinations to stay employed—the "no-jab, no-job" policy of Biden and his government. However, Dowd goes further. He feels these forced vaccinations represent a march toward global totalitarianism, which is not purely about power and profit. It is about controlling the masses when they realize the economy is collapsing—"the ramifications of which may be the loss of pensions and social security income."

According to the 2021 annual report of the Social Security Board of Trustees, by 2034 the Social Security system will only be able to pay out about 78 percent of the benefits to which retired and disabled workers are entitled. At that time there will be a lot of "useless eaters" around draining the system. So, either they increase Social Security taxes or they reduce the number of recipients—i.e. culling the population. However, as you stealthily reduce the number of recipients of Social Security by increasing the death rate, you now increase the burden on insurance companies to pay out more to the sick or families of the dead.

The Honorable Minister Louis Farrakhan has been warning us that this is all part of a U.S. depopulation agenda going all the way back before Henry Kissinger wrote his infamous memorandum (NSSM-200) in 1974 calling for world depopulation. Dowd, who had successfully predicted the dot-com bubble burst in 2000 and the housing bubble burst in 2008, predicted in 2022 that there would soon be a major financial crisis: "The global debt bubble is at its peak ... we are at the end ... we are going to see lots of crazy things in the financial markets ... we are going to see the credit markets become unhinged, the equity markets become unhinged. The Fed got a reprieve ... under the cover of COVID, they were able to print 65% more money to keep this thing afloat, but we are at the end days here."

Now let's look at investment banker and economist Catherine Austin Fitts as she weighs in on the present banking crisis caused by the collapse of Silicon Valley Bank (SVB) on March 9, 2023. Ms. Fitts had previously warned that the now-shelved "vaccine passport" was a first step to total digital surveillance and personal data collection, with a Chinese-inspired "social credit score" attached to a worldwide digital currency. But now that the "vaccine passport" step seems to have been undermined, since the vast majority of people no longer fear the "virus" and have rejected the Kool-Aid in a needle, the international bankers have now deployed a new tactic—forcing the world into accepting a Central Bank Digital Currency (CBDC).

In a March 23, 2023, interview on Del Bigtree's thehighwire.com, Ms. Fitts explained that the Federal Reserve bubbled the economy by printing a lot of money during the "pandemic." Then they increased interest rates to reduce inflation. The increase in interest rates forced SVB to sell some of its long-term U.S. securities to cover a run on the bank's deposits caused by what she calls "political reasons." Fitts believes this is the result of a devious plan developed in August 2019 by the international bankers to usher in the complete financial control of every individual. They intend to replace cash with this new digital money in order to control what every person can buy or sell! With a single click, the private bankers at the Federal Reserve can shut your money down if they don't approve of your thoughts or actions. First, the lockdowns destroyed 40% of small businesses. Now this 2023 bank crisis has been engineered to take down small banks, and Ms. Fitts predicts that within the next few years, the remaining six larger banks will consolidate and bring in the global CBDC—the digital money. Everybody then will be under "house arrest," monitored digitally by big bankers (see Revelations 13:16-18).

Not surprisingly, President Joe Biden has mandated that a full study be done by the Treasury to look into the implementation of the CBDC. Meanwhile, Nigeria is in financial turmoil after tricking its citizens into turning in their cash to get digital currency instead. This all has to be done quickly. All of the most viable presidential candidates challenging the impaired Joe Biden—Donald Trump, Ron DeSantis, and Robert F. Kennedy, Jr.—are harsh critics of the Federal Reserve. However, our choice is easy—"Separation or Death."

In a recent interview with Del Bigtree on TheHighwire (Episode 314), Florida's Surgeon General Dr. Joseph Ladapo (in photo) responded to the World Health Organization's new advice, which has now belatedly followed Dr. Ladapo's advice—keep the mRNA injections away from children. "The truth is, healthy children, healthy young people shouldn't receive these mRNA vaccines, because the benefits are outweighed by the risks. It's unequivocal....It's really unclear to me that anyone should be receiving them at this point in the pandemic."

Dr. Ladapo was harshly criticized when he recommended against the COVID vaccine after a detailed review of the emerging health data. "We've done an analysis here of data in Florida, the Public Health Surveillance Study, and we

Rasmussen Reports survey found that 11% of American adults say a member of their household died from "COVID-19," while 10% say a member of their household may have died from the side effects of COVID-19 vaccines. This is an astounding number, and the number of people who know of someone who had a negative reaction to the injection would have been much higher.

48% of Americans are less concerned about COVID-19 than they were a year ago, compared to 20% who say they're more concerned. 50% of whites, 39% of blacks and 46% of other minorities are less concerned about COVID-19 than they were a year ago. Nineteen percent (19%) of whites, 24% of blacks and 22% of other minorities are more concerned about COVID-19 than they were a year ago.

Remarkably, among those who say a member of their household died from COVID-19, 54% also say a member of their household has died whose death they think may have been caused by side effects of COVID-19 vaccines.

More than three years after "15 days to slow the spread" of COVID-19, most voters have less trust in government health experts — and in the news media, too.

Switzerland bans the COVID vaccines

Dr. Robert W. Malone, the inventor of the mRNA vaccine, points out the significance of the Swiss government's action:

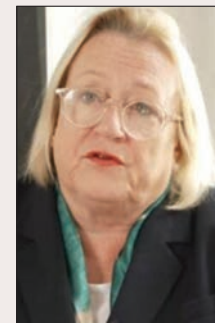

Switzerland (in red), a non-aligned nation (not NATO, EU, or BRICS) is generally considered the global hub of the pharmaceutical industry. The Government of Switzerland coming out with this position is a clear recognition that objective scientific analysis of the risk/benefit ratio of COVID-19 "vaccines" does not justify "vaccination" in any cohort.

Note that the Swiss position is that physicians can prescribe [the COVID-19 "vaccines"], but will need to carry the risk of liability in the case of adverse events—the exact opposite position of the U.S. position. This

She served on the board of directors of the Wall Street investment bank Dillon, Read & Co., Inc., and as a HUD official in the first Bush Administration. Here is a March 28, 2023 excerpt from a recent interview posted at Breggin.com:

My attitude is, I don't understand what the theoretical benefits of immunology have to do with continued poisoning of our children, by companies and regulators with a long history of serial felonies. There's no reason to believe that anything coming through that pipeline at this point is what they say it is. What we've seen is: we've watched a "vaccination process" where the variability of the material in the vials is so extraordinarily great that you have seasoned pharmaceutical executives opining that not only is it not a vaccine, it's not a pharmaceutical and it's not a medicine—therefore it's a weapon.

So we're talking about serial felonies that are extraordinary by both the regulators and the companies. To me the theoretical benefits of immunology—which to me are theoretical and have never been proven—I don't see what they have to do with continued poisoning of our children by serial felons. I mean, would you turn over the power to inject mysterious ingredients into the bodies of our children by the Russian mafia? No, I don't think so. Well, I don't see what the difference is.

...I don't want to promote anybody who promotes continued poisoning by serial felons, which to me has nothing to do with immunology. This is not a vaccine schedule. It's a poisoning schedule by serial felons. And that's been proven. There has to be accountability for mass atrocity.

clearly demonstrates that this issue has become politicized in the USA, and that the objectivity of the U.S. Department of Health & Human Services' decision making has been compromised.

This decision is based in part on the widespread natural immunity which has developed in Switzerland, something which was long denied by the U.S. Government, U.S. corporate media and US information technology (social media) companies and their non-governmental organization surrogates.

Minister FARRAKHAN on DEPOPULATION

CDC Financed by Home Depot Billionaire & Other Corporate Donors

In terms of how this wicked policy of depopulation has affected Africa and the Third World, during my last visit to Zimbabwe, in southeastern Africa, we learned how the AIDS pandemic was killing 5,000 Zimbabweans a week—20,000 a month. And the biggest industry at the time in the capital city of Harare was the making of coffins ... And although it was the Blacks who were dying of AIDS, I asked about the White population—were they dying of AIDS; and the answer was, “No, they were not.” I went to a luncheon sponsored by the Zimbabwean Department of Health, and a wonderful female doctor who was the Minister of Health was so proud to announce that every child in Zimbabwe was vaccinated with vaccines that had come from America and Europe.

I grieved over the widespread death due to the poisons, not “un”-intentionally put in vaccines but intentionally put in vaccines to limit the population of Black people in those countries and places in the world where America’s needs for their vital minerals and resources were deemed necessary—in her mind—for her national interests; to keep America in the world as the “No. 1 superpower.”

Killing off tens of hundreds of thousands of people in Third World nations, because those nations trust the scholars and scientists of the Western world, White people, who claim to want to “help” them. While there are many White people who are sincere, they are the “fronts” that are used to open the door for the insincere Satanic Mind to enter, to practice evil under a claimed “noble motive.”

So The Enemy has not changed from the beginning of his creation, “killing the darker, saving the lighter.” And, that nature has not changed from the time of General Jeffrey Amherst in 1763, who put smallpox in blankets, and came to the Indians claiming that these blankets would “help comfort them through the winter”—using biological weapons against the Native people. And the fact that we were injected with the most virulent form of syphilis during the “Tuskegee Experiments” from 1932-1972 (40 years); allowing us to cohabit with others, to spread the disease. And all we got when it was discovered was an “apology,” and some meager, very meager, compensation. Also, millions of Americans were given polio shots starting in the 1950s and 1960s; and now, flu shots. And we don’t know what contagions or toxins are in the vial, or serum, that we are being injected with.

Excerpt from Part 37 of the Honorable Minister Louis Farrakhan’s 52-week Lecture Series “The Time and What Must Be Done.”

If you thought the CDC was a government agency, you may want to reassess, according to the Atlanta Jewish Times. At the very start of the plandemic the paper reported (April 1, 2020) that Bernie Marcus (in photo), the well-known head of The Marcus Foundation and a founder of The Home Depot, had made a pledge of almost $4 million so that the CDC could construct “a state-of-the-art operations hub for national emergencies.”

When the CDC was dedicated in 2003, CDC director Dr. Julie Gerberding expressed her appreciation: “The CDC now has a world-class operations center equipped to handle any public health emergency, whether it’s a bioterrorism attack or an outbreak of a new disease,” she said. “The nation’s public health community had an urgent need and Bernie Marcus and other corporate donors stepped up to the plate and made it happen.”

Bernie Marcus’ investment “helped to set in motion the transformation of the CDC’s campus into the massive complex of towering modern structures that reinforce the important role that the CDC plays today in the health of the nation.”

Before Marcus the CDC’s physical facility was described as being in an “awful condition” and even “collapsing.”

Phil Jacobs, a partner in the effort, said: “I have pictures of tarps on the ceiling that are holding water out over these million-dollar pieces of equipment....There was one story of a woman who was an employee of the CDC who went into the ladies room and fell through the floor because [of] all the rotted wood.”

The Atlanta Jewish Times reported that several wealthy private and corporate donors formed “an organization called the Corporate Friends of CDC, which lobbied Congress to appropriate an additional $1.6 billion to the CDC. They not only wanted to see the physical rehabilitation of CDC offices but sought to redesign its mission as well. They formed a “Corporate Roundtable on Global Health Threats...that would help to encourage the nation’s top business leaders to add their own public health initiatives to the mix that the CDC and the CDC Foundation were funding.” This, they said, “drove a lot of these companies to look at disaster relief plans on how to deal with emergencies.”

Over the years, the CDC Foundation’s corporate and philanthropic sponsors have contributed over $800 million to further the dubious work of the CDC.

Yet, for Jacobs, “there is a certain sense of satisfaction that the early efforts that were started by himself, Bernie Marcus, and others in the Atlanta community have made such an important difference today.” Nonetheless, he seemed somewhat oblivious to the damage the CDC has caused and the lives lost:

“I don’t think anyone ever anticipated the scale of what we are seeing now,” he said. “I don’t know that anyone ever dreamed of the astronomical consequences, the human consequences, of what we are facing.”

About half of my COVID patients now are vaccine injuries. First patient today was a previously very healthy athlete. He handed me his business card and said “This is me” then he handed me his vaccine card and said “And this is the biggest mistake I’ve ever made.” His PCP at @MethodistHosp, Dr Alan Hoffman, urged him to get the shots, and he was one of the first, getting his first Moderna shot 12/20. When he subsequently developed chronic tremors, unbearable flushing, racing heart, and massive anxiety, his PCP said there was no way his symptoms were from the shots and encouraged him to get a booster. Prior to me, he’d seen 5 other doctors - none of them have reported his case to VAERS.
